VOL. XXVIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1901, 9 A. M.

NO. 97

GOOD-BYE.

Mr. W. P. Walton, in retiring as editor and general manager of the Lexington Morning Democrat, tells the paper and his friends good-bye as follows:

With this issue of the Morning Democrat my connection with it ceases. Present at its birth, having nursed at its bedside for nearly five months, and until it is about able to stand alone, I have become greatly attached to it and make the step that I now do with deep regret that circumstances render it impossible for me to continue to help nourish and sustain it.

I am the victim of attempting to do too much, with the consequent result that I am unable to accomplish my ideals in any line, while heavy work has seriously impaired my health and worry almost destroyed my hope of salvation. I was rash enough to undertake both the business and editorial management of the paper, either of which is more than enough for one man, even if the two departments could be successfully combined, and I have found, as I should have known, that the strain was too great and the anxiety too severe for a man of my mental and physical make-up. After working in the counting room all day, I was in no condition to grind out editorials at night, but such as they have been, I prepared them all with few and far exceptions, and for nearly two weeks acted as editor-in-chief, managing editor, reporter and devil.

This explanation is for the purpose of showing my friends how heavily handicapped I have been, and to disarm my critics and forestall my enemies.

It is rather a singular coincidence that I end my editorial career for the presentation of the anniversary I began it. Twenty-six years ago today I issued my first number of the Stanford Interior Journal, which still lives and flourishes, and promises like Tennyson's brook to go on forever.

I trust that in my brief sojourn in Lexington I have made many new friends and lost none of my old ones. I like the city and would gladly remain a resident of it, except that my occupation is gone for the present. My journalistic friends have been exceedingly kind and forbearing and they and the other good people who have given me aid and comfort have my sincerest gratitude.

I shall ever retain a lively interest in the Democrat and wish it the highest measure of success. The democrats should give it a loyal support and encourage in every way the gentlemen who are trying to place it on a firm foundation.

With a smile for those who love me and a tear for those who hate, I step down and out with full confidence that I have done my best under the circumstances and with a feeling of relief that I am no longer a hired man.

The following resolution was passed by the directors of the Democrat and published over their signatures in that paper:

That we tender to Mr. W. P. Walton our sincere thanks for the able and efficient manner in which he has discharged his duties, and express to him our highest appreciation of his services and the interest he has taken in the success of the paper, and assure him of our best wishes for his future prosperity and happiness.

F. A. Bullock, Pres., W. P. Kimball, Thomas A. Combs, W. H. McCorkle, R. L. Baker, James L. Watkins and H. M. Bosworth.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

THE Illinois Legislature has a bill before it to provide for kindergartens and manual training in any town or district and to compel the establishment of kindergartens in all cities with 5,000 or more inhabitants. Manual training is made obligatory in all cities of 20,000 and more. Massachusetts passed, in 1894, a law making manual training schools obligatory in all cities of 20,000 and over. Twenty-three cities came under this provision. Besides these cities there are, in Massachusetts, 18 smaller cities, which, while not required by law to do so, maintain manual training schools. The measures but anticipate the inevitable. They lead the States into a path of educational progress upon which every other American Commonwealth will soon be found advancing with success to the solution of many of the gravest social problems of the day.

THE trustees of the Houses of Reform should feel proud of their work when they read and hear of such cases as this: "Tom Nickel, a Syrian about 14 years old, was released from the House of Reform yesterday, after a year's sentence. He went into the institution ignorant and unable to speak English, but leaves it able to read in the fourth reader and master of arithmetic up to fractions—a handsome compliment to the work of that excellent institution." Had this boy spent the same length of time in the penitentiary the chances are that he would have been even more ignorant than when he went in as well as a hardened criminal, who would likely have found his way back to that place of punishment.

At last one of the men charged with bringing about the death of Gov. Wm. Goebel is receiving punishment. Henry E. Youtsey was sentenced Tuesday to life imprisonment. He has begun his sentence, having abandoned all efforts for a new trial. In a statement filed in court his counsel claimed he had not been given justice, but expressed a belief that he would fare no better upon a second trial, alleging prejudice against their client. As sentence was passed Youtsey protested his innocence.

Youtsey was assigned to work in the dining room. He will become a member of the prison Christian Endeavor Society Sunday.

THE Ripley indictment for complicity in the assassination of Gov. Goebel it is said, will be followed by others which may include people close to home. If there is sufficient evidence upon which to base them, they should be found, otherwise we take it they will not. The motto should be: "Let no guilty man escape." Too many are still at large whose necks should have felt the halter draw long ago.

MRS. NATION'S visit to Topeka seems to have done some good. The whisky joints have been warned by city and county officials to close, and the saloon men have agreed to sell no more liquor.

HON. DAVE H. SMITH is another candidate for U. S. Senator who favors the election of Senators by the popular will of the people.

THE House committee on invalid pensions has favorably reported the bill to give invalid pensioners $30.

OVER $500,000 was spent for flowers at Queen Victoria's burial.

CALL FOR MEETING.

The democratic district committee of the 18th Senatorial District of Kentucky is called to meet at the law office of R. C. Warren in Stanford, on Monday, Feb. 11, 1901, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of determining the time and manner of nominating a democratic candidate to be voted for at the next ensuing November election.

Chairman 18th Senatorial District.

The Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill as completed by the House Committee on Appropriation carries $59,703,084. The Army Appropriation Bill carries approximately $118,000,000.

Senator Deboe recommended Congressman Pugh for appointment as judge of the new Federal district in Kentucky. Congressman Boreing recommended Judge J. H. Tinsley for district attorney.

The republicans of the 16th Senatorial district have called a convention at Burkesville for March 14 to nominate a candidate for Senator. The counties in the district are Adair, Russell, Wayne, Clinton and Cumberland.

The democratic legislative convention in the Hickman-Pulton district, held at Fulton resulted in a split. The regular convention nominated Mott Ayers for Representative. 28 delegates held a separate convention and nominated Robert Platt.

Capt. Joseph Garrard, of the Ninth Cavalry, has been made a major. He is at present in charge of the recruiting station at Cincinnati. Maj. Garrard has been in the army for a number of years. He is a son of Gen. T. Garrard, of Clay county, Kentucky.

A Washington dispatch says: Representative Boreing is visiting jewelry stores today looking for a gold pen to be used by the president when he signs the Kentucky Judicial bill. He likewise wants this pen used by President McKinley when he appoints Representative Pugh as judge.

The War revenue Reduction Bill was passed by the Senate substantially as it came from the committee, but being different from the House bill, must go back to that body. A determined effort was made to remove the tax on bank checks, but it failed as did an effort to compel the telegraph and express companies to bear the burden imposed upon their patrons under the present law. The most important amendment taxes "bucket shops." An amendment for an income tax was defeated by a party vote.

Judge John Gibbons, of Chicago, says in a legal opinion: "The law of marriage and divorce as it prevails here, is nothing less than legalized concubinage. I should amend the law so as to permit absolute divorce only for infidelity and impotency."

Mrs. Nation wrecked the finest saloon in Topeka. She was arrested, but afterwards released. The proprietor of the place and his two guards were also arrested. Neither Morgan, the active negotiator for the great Rockefeller syndicate, nor Carnegie will confirm the story that the latter has sold to the trust a controlling interest in his steel business, but it is generally accepted as true that the deal is all but an accomplished fact. The transaction is the most stupendous in industrial history and sets at rest the stories that the two great kings of industry, Rockefeller and Carnegie, were about to enter upon a war.

I AM sole agent for the Continental Fire Insurance Company in the counties of Lincoln, Boyle and Casey. R. B. Mahony, Stanford, Ky.

CAN'T our Hustonville and Mt. Vernon correspondents do a little better? Hundreds of our readers look forward to their letters and we dislike to disappoint them.

MORRIS FRED, proprietor of the Farmers Roller Mills, tells us that he will be ready to serve the public with the best of flour, meal, &c., Monday, next, court day.

THE Danville News says that Mr. R. R. Gentry has gone out of the meat business for the present, but will probably open up again as soon as he can secure a suitable building.

ARCH ADAMS, colored, who was fined $40 for attempting to draw his pistol here Christmas eve night, 1899, and skipped out, came to town Wednesday. Marshal Jones laid eyes on him and had him in jail a few minutes later.

BIG ICE HOUSE.—The Stanford Water, Light & Ice Co. is preparing to build an ice house with a capacity of 500 tons. Heretofore the demand for ice has been greater than the supply and in order to fill all orders the move is made.

THE Advocate boasts that it has a subscriber in Will Salice, who is paid up to Sept., 1902. Shucks, that's nothing; we've got 'em by the column paid up that far, while our list of those who are paid to 1903 covers considerable space in our mailing galleries.

WHILE going to the funeral of Mr. J. H. Tucker yesterday, a hot iron in the buggy in which Mrs. Josie Raney and Mrs. Maggie Martin were driving, set fire to Mrs. Martin's dress, burning it to such an extent that she had to borrow one from a friend in order to go on. Fortunately she escaped with only a few slight burns.

WE learn with deep regret of the death of our cousin, Mr. E. T. Smith, of Louisa, Va. A number of years ago he wrote a very interesting continued story for this paper and no doubt many of our readers remember it. He was a liberal contributor to various magazines. For years Mr. Smith held a high and lucrative position with the C. & O. railroad, but his last years were spent in literary work.

BRYAN.—Mr. James C. Bryan died at his home on Danville Avenue at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning of pneumonia, aged 71. He was first taken with grip, which terminated as above. A wife and two children, Mrs. J. L. Totten and J. B. Bryan, survive. After appropriate remarks by Elder Joseph Ballou at his late residence Wednesday morning the remains were laid to rest in the Dawson burying ground. Mr. Bryan was an honorable, upright man, an uncompromising democrat and a good citizen in every particular.

TUCKER.—A good man went to his reward when Mr. James H. Tucker, of the Maywood section, passed into the great beyond at an early hour Wednesday morning, aged 56. He had complained a little the evening before, but when his niece went into his room at about 4 o'clock that morning he told her he was feeling first-rate. She called him at 7 but no response came and on entering the room she found him dead. It is believed that heart disease was the trouble. His excellent wife, who is crushed with grief, was attending the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Russell Dillon, at Livingston, when she was made a widow. Mr. Tucker was a splendid man, popular with his neighbors and loved by all who knew him. He was a strict member of the Methodist church and having lived a righteous life, death held no fears for him. Besides Mrs. Dillon, a son, J. A. Tucker, survives and they with their mother have the sympathy of all in their great loss. At 10 yesterday morning funeral services were held by Rev. McIntyre at Mt. Hebron church, after which the remains were brought here and interred in Buffalo Cemetery. An excellent man has fallen; let others emulate the good example he has set.

CUMMINS & MCCLARY have the handsomest thing in the way of a show case ever brought to Stanford.

THE weather has been behaving very badly since ground hog day. Considerable snow fell yesterday and it is selecting this morning.

FARMERS, examine your wheat and see if weevil has not damaged it. Quite a lot of wheat is ruined before noticed. J. H. Baughman & Co.

MR. JAMES D. BASTIN won in the trespass suit to Judge James P. Bailey's court Wednesday. Tim W. Hutchison had sued him. This was the second trial of the case.

EVAN HARRIS, of the West End, for shooting and wounding Dick Dann, also colored, was placed in jail yesterday by Deputy Sheriff J. A. Shannon. His trial is set for Saturday.

NEW DEPUTIES.—Collector James Denton has appointed Walter Elrod, of Somerset, and J. L. McCoy, of Pineville, division deputies in place of B. G. Alford and H. W. Atkeson.

W. C. GREENING has bought back the stock of groceries he sold Rose & Bishop, Hustonville, and will do business at his old stand, where he hopes his old customers and many new ones will call.

IT matters little if the Jeffries-Rublin fight is called off, when we can see one close to home. "Kid" Hubert, of Louisville, and Jim Connors, of St. Louis, have been matched to box 20 rounds at Junction City Feb. 13.

AL FIELDS has asked to have his date at Walton's Opera House changed to March 19th from the 15th. His minstrel company is larger and better than ever and he only stops in a town this size to save a night in a long jump.

JOPLIN.—Mrs. J. L. Joplin, one of Mt. Vernon's best women, died Tuesday morning after a long illness. She was a devout member of the Christian church and her work for all good causes will be missed. An aged husband and a number of grown children survive.

ACCIDENT.—Marshal W. W. Penn, of Junction City, was pretty badly used up in a runaway yesterday. Driving to Danville, his horse became frightened and ran over an embankment, wrecking the vehicle and throwing Mr. Penn against a fence, hurting him about the head and shoulders.

IF talk amounts to anything Lancaster will certainly get the Southern Railroad. We are glad to know that our people realize that "talk is cheap," though and are sawing wood and saying nothing. Let them keep the ark a-moving while our Garrard county friends are wasting their wind in speech.

MR. I. M. BRUCE, who accompanied the consulting engineers of the Southern Railroad, Messrs. Harrison and Moore, as far as Dallas, Pulaski county, returned Wednesday night, feeling good over Stanford's getting the road. The gentlemen were well pleased with the route and were surprised at the splendid coal and timbered lands it goes through. Mr. Bruce turned the gentlemen over to Mr. Harve Poynter, of Dallas, who promised to accompany them as far as they wished.

THE following from Postmaster Camnitz at Hustonville is self-explanatory: Papers failed to come again last night. The ones for Chilton, Ed and Linnie arrived all O. K. Ours did not come in until this a. m., consequently I again caught "what Paddy gave the drum." This is exceedingly annoying to us. The papers for Hustonville are in the same sack with those for the offices Mr. Camnitz names and it seems nothing but pure clumsiness on the part of the postal clerks that they are not allowed to reach their destination in time.

W. P. WALTON CANED.—Ex-editor of The Democrat given a good one by Sheriff Bosworth. The former editor of this paper, W. P. Walton, was handsomely caned by Sheriff H. M. Bosworth yesterday in the presence of a number of gentlemen, who seemed to enjoy the performance. The cane is made of leather, is silver tipped and a beautiful one. Mr. Walton is very proud of it, both for the friendly spirit the gift betokens and because it came from the hand of the man who captured Caleb Powers.—Lexington Morning Democrat.

CANDIDATES' cards, of various kinds, cheap, at this office.

ED MINOR, who was shot at Lancaster by Will Hamilton, is doing as well as could be expected. His doctors think he has a good show to recover.

MATRIMONIAL.

An Iowa woman is about to marry the ninth time. Three of her husbands obtained divorce, three suicided and the other two skipped out.

Mr. James B. Curtis, of Garrard, and Miss Lucy A. Lunsford, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lunsford, of Preachersville, were married at the residence of Rev. R. B. Mahony, in this city, by that gentleman Wednesday.

Walter F. Burns has begun proceeding in New York for the annulment of his marriage with Alice Gladys Brauer, whom he charges with bigamy. He also says she represented herself to be a daughter of Gen. John B. Castleman, of Louisville.

BRODHEAD.

Mrs. Woodall was buried at the Methodist cemetery, Bro. Pike officiating.

Aunt Jane Woodall passed quietly away Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. She was the mother-in-law of John Jarrett, Eliza Roberts and Robert Woodall. She died at Mr. John Jarrett's.

Mr. G. W. Miller, of Danville, is at the bedside of Mrs. Tharp, her sick mother. J. A. Reppass, of Lancaster, the railroad surveyor, was in town this week. John Jarrett, Jr., of Lebanon, attended the burial of Mrs. Woodall Wednesday.

Mrs. Jane Brooks, the widowed mother of George, Frank, W. T. and Dick Brooks, who lived at Gum Sulphur, died at her home Monday at 5 A. M. The boys are all good friends to the writer and they have our sympathy for we all have only one mother and it is hard indeed to give her up. So boys prepare to meet her in a better world than this one.

Our board of town trustees met Tuesday at a regular meeting and passed an ordinance adopting the general statute on crime and punishment as an ordinance of this town; also one against persons getting on or off a moving engine or train, who has no ticket and one against trains running through the corporate limits at a speed greater than 10 miles an hour. Mr. J. E. Wallen was employed as marshal and says he will certainly enforce the law.

Miss Sallie Purcell is spending the week with relatives and friends at Lancaster. Mr. Harvey Dunn returned from Danville Monday, where he had been to confirm a deal with Mr. P. L. Beck, in selling him his father's farm. The price paid was $7,500 and one-fourth of the wheat crop. We presume that Mr. Joshua Dunn and family will make their future home at Brodhead. He is a good man and citizen and he with his family will do much in helping up our town, for Mr. Harvey is an enterprising, energetic business man.

Rev. George D. Hendrickson leaves Thursday night for Indiana, where he anticipates remaining for two months. Bro. Pike filled his appointment with Haysville church last Sunday and returned Monday. Dr. J. S. Evans, of Riley, came up last Monday to see Mrs. W. G. Tharp, who has been sick for the last 10 months. Dr. Evans is a christian gentleman as well as a good practitioner. His diagnosis of Mrs. Tharp's case establishes the diagnosis of Dr. Gravelly, our home physician, who is attending Mrs. Tharp. She is no better at this writing.

Mrs. Mary Collier has been confined to her room for several days, but is some better now. Mr. Wm Gilpin has moved out to his farm recently purchased of Mr. Anderson. Mr. A. R. Henderson is studying telegraphy under J. B. Farmer, our agent, who never fails to send out a first class operator. Mr. J. H. Albright, who has been absent for a month, working for the interest of the Maccabees, is at home this week looking well. Dr. J. M. Clark is visiting his old home in North Carolina this week. Dr. J. F. Watson is complaining because he gets no rest. Our young boys did well Friday night in their discussion. Some of them who could not say anything when they first organized, displayed considerable talent in oratory. So boys go forward, you will make men some day.

The indorsement of Politician Pugh for the Eastern Kentucky District Judgeship by the democratic members of the Kentucky congressional delegation is unquestionably good fellowship, and probably good politics, but it is bad law and worse patriotism. Pugh was cut out for a County Judge and like the baby catfish that grew up in a cast-away jug, he has never expanded sufficiently to burst his environment.—Louisville Times.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
by local application as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houlehan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.
